

Sunil Kothari, MD

Sunil Kothari, M.D. is board-certified in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, specializing in Brain Injury Rehabilitation for the past 15 years. He is currently an attending physician on the Brain Injury and Stroke Team at TIRR Memorial Hermann, the medical director of the Disorders of Consciousness Program and a faculty member at Baylor College of Medicine (where he is director of the Brain Injury Medicine Fellowship). After receiving degrees from Yale University and the University of Texas, he completed his residency at Northwestern University (Chicago) and his fellowship at the Baylor College of Medicine. Dr. Kothari was recently awarded the Humanitarian of the Year Award by the Texas Brain Injury Alliance, for his work with Rehabilitation Services Volunteer Project.